NAVY LEGALMAN PARALEGAL CHOSEN AS NATIONAL PARALEGAL OF THE YEAR

The National Federation of Paralegal Associations, Inc. (NFPA) has selected Legalman First Class Marcelo A. Carrillo as the organization's 2007 Paralegal of the Year. The award, sponsored by CT, was presented at NFPA's Annual Convention in Tampa, FL, October 18-21, 2007.

The Paralegal of the Year award is given to an individual who exhibits extraordinary commitment and contributions to the expansion of the paralegal profession. Marc Carrillo is the epitome of a Paralegal, Sailor and Legalman. He consistently performs his duties, leads by example, and sets the standard for paralegals in the U.S. Navy. He currently serves as the President of the Southwest Chapter of the Navy Legalman Association. His accomplishments are astounding, routinely providing sound career advice and support to over 40 enlisted Sailors, facilitating training, and assisting in coordinating the new metrics reporting system used throughout the U.S. Navy JAG Community.

In every endeavor, Marc Carrillo has excelled and set the standard for others to emulate. His willingness to go the extra mile to help in any way possible demonstrates the "can do" attitude which views personal success in terms of mission achievements.

NFPA is a non-profit professional organization representing more than 11,000 paralegals and is headquartered in Edmonds, WA. NFPA's core purpose is the advancement of the paralegal profession. NFPA promotes a global presence for the paralegal profession and leadership in the legal community.

CT, a provider of corporate legal services, offers services for statutory representation, litigation management, corporate governance and compliance, annual report filing, corporate and UCC services, public record searching and document retrieval.
